IN MEMORIAM

In loving memroy of my nephew, Gerald M. Harvey, who died eight years ago on Oct. the 30th, 1953.
October brings sad memories,
Of a loved one gone to rest;
You will never be forgotten,
By the ones who loved you best.
The beautiful things you did for us
live in our hearts every day,
And keep you ever near and dear to us,
Though you have passed away.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is still;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled,
—Aunt Ida.
(1tnc)

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our husband and daddy, Clifton E. Franklin, who passed away Oct. 22, 1959.
One year has passed since that sad day,
The one we loved was called away.
We miss you now and always will,
There's a vacant place none can fill,
And here we mourn, but not in vain,
For in heaven we will meet again.

Some may think we have forgotten you,
When at times they see us smile,
But little do they know the grief,
We suffer all the while.

No morning dawns, no night returns
But what we think of you.
Those left behind are very dear,
But none replaces thee.

A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness,
This world will never fill.

Often to your grave we wander,
Place some flowers with loving care.
And we feel that you are near us,
As we sadly linger there.
—Sadly missed by
Wife and Children.

Kennedy Wins In Presidential Balloting

Appomattox County gave a big plurality of 289 votes to the Democratic ticket on Tuesday, going for President-Elect John F. Kennedy by a margin of 1240 to 951 votes over his Republican opponent, Richard M. Nixon. Kennedy carried nine of the ten precincts in Appomattox, losing only at Walker's Church, by a 4-vote margin.

Virginia, however, for the third consecutive Presidential election, went Republican, this time by a 40,500 vote margin. This was reduced by about half from the margin Pres. Eisenhower got four years ago.

President-ELect Kennedy rolled to an impressive national victory in Electoral votes, but the popular vote over the nation was nip and tuck, and the end result was not positive until late returns were tabulated.

Senator A. Willis Robertson won a tremendous margin in his bid for third six-year term in the U. S. Senate, and all incumbent Virginia Congressmen were re-elected. Few had serious opposition.

Of 2,307 votes cast, Senator Robertson had 1697 in Appomattox County, and Rep. Watkins M. Abbitt had 1,826.

By precinct, for President:

Precinct	Democrat	Republican
Agee	78	53
Chap	79	28
Chestwood	40	13
Clover Hill	146	109
Court House	462	407
Oakville	143	118
Pamplin	98	73
Rocks	37	31
Sto ewall	137	69
Walker's Church	29	24

Total vote: 2307. A total of about 30 spoiled or improperly marked ballots were reported.

The "Conservative Party" received 1 devotes in the county, and the Socialist Party received 3.

Many local residents had their TV sets on all night Tuesday, to listen to slowly counted figures on the national election. Virginia and Florida went Republican, but the big Southern states stayed in the Democratic column, led by Texas, with its big electoral vote.

Sen. Kennedy piled up his electonal margin in the big industrial states and population centers, such as New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and California, and went to capture Illinois Michigan and Minnesota where big electoral votes were at stake.

Although the trend had been indicated, the national decision was not positive until midmorning counting yesterday.

The new President will take office, under the Constitution, January 20.
